Hi everyone, it's Pero of Shadow_Mage_Story here, how are you today? 1. How was your experience in "Elden Ring"? I haven't played a lot of the RPG genre so I can't really compare. But I definitely enjoyed how it plays out and I really enjoyed how elegant the combat is. It's no doubt that the combat is very "ardor" haha. It could also be said that the camera would sometimes have trouble when jumping so sometimes I would get knocked into an unintended place. I would definitely give it a try if anyone has it. 2. Were there any problems when you tried the game? There were a lot of bugs that I had to report to the programmers. And also it's very hard to get through the castle with the monster who's fishing you down, but I guess that's just part of the game. I remember it was impossible to get through the castle without special items or the dark blessing. Anyway, I'm fine with the bugs. 3. What are your thoughts on the job of the story? It's definitely interesting, and it's not just a linear story with no twists. There's actually a bit of ambiguity in the story that's very enjoyable. It's just that some of the decisions are easy to take and some of them don't have much of an impact on the story. I don't really understand how different the story is from the first game. But it's definitely good. 4. Were there any new additions to the first game? There were a lot of new additions. They added some characters, some more situations, and the inventory management was made a lot easier. However I can't remember which new things they added. 5. Were you satisfied with the game? Yes, I was satisfied. 6. What are the new additions to the game? In the first game, there was very little variety in the design. The houses and dungeons were all designed in one way. In this game, there are a lot more houses and dungeons. That's one of the main new things in the game. There are also many new enemies that you will encounter. That's the other thing. 7. How is the cast of the game? The cast is pretty impressive. They're really good at acting. It's not just a one to bff6bb2d33

Whether you do it as a kid because it's fun and it feels good or because you're trying to feel more normal or just because you want to make your parents proud. I know that I can't help but to write when I feel an overwhelming, unstoppable love for someone else. My soul is drowning in compassion and I must get this out. I have been inspired to share my experiences by the many awesome and intelligent writers that I have been reading. My first inspiration was Robert Jordan, as the first book he published me allowed me to discover who and what he was. From there I found Grant Morrison, whom I've had a deep connection with since I read the New X-Men I when I was in middle school. He was both one of the first writers to encourage female artists and writers and the one who taught me that to create something new is to question what the world thinks you should create. Then there was Rachel Greene, who showed me that art is allowed to question and challenge and shine a light on things that need to be heard. Without these writers, I would only be able to write some of what was in my mind.

Today my channel is filled with art, stories of my personal experiences, creations, and viewpoints. I write about intergender friendships and sex and gender identities. I want to ask questions and give answers and help. I want to share my art with other creators, but I also want to help drive the community more for everyone. I also want to make myself better. I want to look at my art and my life and feel the gift and purpose and the power that it brings so I can improve my craft and share it. If you like what you see, subscribe and
